Shii Studies Review

Aims & Scope

A refereed journal with an international editorial and advisory board, the Shii Studies Review provides a scholarly forum for researchers specializing in all fields of Shi’i studies. Issued twice a year, the journal publishes peer-reviewed original studies, critical editions of classical and pre-modern texts, and book reviews on Shi’i law, hadith, Qur’anic exegesis, philosophy, kalām, ritual and practices, classical and contemporary literature, and other aspects of the history of Shi’ism. It is dedicated to the study of Imami, Ismaili, Zaydi, and other other trends in Shi’i thought throughout history. Taking an expansive view of the richly variegated Shi’i traditions in both thought and practice and their cultural and social contexts, the Shii Studies Review makes a distinctive contribution to current scholarship on Shi’ism and its integration into the broader field of Islamic studies.
