

Goldman b'day

HG

January 1st '57

Dear Kitty and Robert, -

The old year has faded out but not with it the memory of the delightful evening you provided on December 19th.

As the protagonist of the occasion
I want to thank you once more for all the friendship, warmth & joy

feeling and exquisite taste which went into the making of the birthday party. I only hope every body else enjoyed it as much as I did.

I have had a chance to become acquainted with the content of the volume and taken as a whole I think the Institute can be well satisfied with what it has sponsored.

All good wishes for the New Year to the Olden Manor family,

from

Hetty Goldman.

Dear Dr. Oppenheimer:

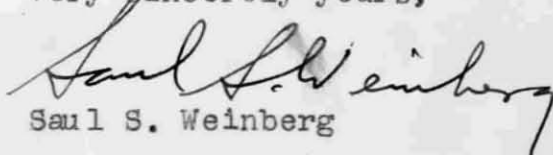

Mrs. Weinberg and I were very happy to receive the invitation for the dinner which you and Mrs. Oppenheimer are giving to celebrate Hetty Goldman's seventy-fifth birthday on December 19th. We accept with pleasure and certainly hope that we shall be able to be with you on that occasion.

Our reservations to fly to New York on December 18th have been confirmed, so we look forward to no trouble. We shall come down to Princeton on the morning of the 19th.

I have had almost no word from Augustin in the last few weeks, which is just as well, for the presses should now be turning out the volume and I'm pleased that no problems have arisen. I am confident that the volume will be in your hands for the dinner. Working under the assumption that Hetty still is not aware of the existence of the volume, Augustin will not make any announcement of it until December 20th at the earliest.

I look forward to hearing from you soon with regard to details of the celebration. Mrs. Weinberg joins me in sending our thanks and best wishes.

Very sincerely yours,

Saul S. Weinberg

Dear Robert:

I would suggest the following additions to the guest list for Miss Goldman's birthday dinner:

Miss Frances F. Jones

The Art Museum, Princeton University.

Miss Jones was for several years assistant to Miss Goldman, and actually wrote ~~a~~ large part of Tarsus I.

Miss Virginia Grace

American School of Classical Studies
Athens, Greece.

Miss Grace also assisted Miss Goldman at Tarsus, and she too contributed to Tarsus I.

I have just heard that she is coming to the U.S.A. in December and expects to be in Princeton at the time of the birthday.

Sincerely,

Horace Thompson
