Introduction

1 Biographical Note

Wilferd Madelung was born on 26 December 1930 in Stuttgart, as a son of Georg Hans Madelung (1889-1972) and Emma Elisabeth Madelung née Messerschmitt (1907-1990). Wilferd was the second child – he had an older brother, Gero (1928-2018), and two younger sisters, Hedio (b. 1935) and Eleo (b. 1938). On 24 August 1963, Wilferd married A. Margaret Arent, and the couple had one son, Michael Lynton ("Mikki", b. 1970).

Wilferd was educated in Stuttgart (Eberhard Ludwig Gymnasium), Washington DC (Woodrow Wilson High school, Georgetown University), Cairo (Fuad I University), Göttingen, and Hamburg, where he obtained his PhD in 1957. Between 1958 and 1960, he served as cultural attaché at the West-German Embassy in Baghdad, followed by a visiting professorship at the University of Austin, Texas (1963). Following his Habilitation in Hamburg, he taught as Privatdozent in Hamburg during the academic year 1963-64. Since 1964 Madelung taught at Chicago University as Assistant professor (Associate Prof., 1966; Professor of Islamic History, 1969). Between 1978 and 1998, Madelung taught as Laudian Professor of Arabic at Oxford University. Between 1999 and 2021, Wilferd Madelung was affiliated with The Institute of Ismaili Studies as a Senior Research Fellow. Wilferd Madelung passed away on 9 May 2023 in Oxford.

2 Scope and Contents

The Wilferd Madelung Papers were gathered on 24-25 February 2023 from Wilferd Madelung's former Oxford apartment (21 Belsyre Court, Observatory Street) and on 14 March 2023 from the Madelung family residence in River Forest, Illinois (547 Keystone Avenue). Over the course of 2023, the material was brought together and sorted, and the present, still incomplete, inventory reflects this arrangement. The remaining materials will be added over the coming months.
