

Here is a special
reading of the Proceedings of the General Assembly
of the State of New York

Joint Distribution Committee

held on the twenty second day of February, nineteen
hundred and twenty
nine, the following resolution was read
unanimously adopted

Sir Banckes
that it is with a
sense of profound
grief and heartfelt
sorrow and a feeling
of great loss to this Committee that we learn the passing
from this life on the fourth day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-five
of the late

Edw. Field

of Newark, N. J.
In the midst of a

life of activity, he was not ready to leave
his home, his friends,
his country, to any great extent. The last
of his benevolent
specimens the variety
of his philanthropic
and human interests.
The most striking
of his life, his ready-ness and unobtrusive
love of service with long, ungrateful years of unpaid work for the benefit of his country.

1840-1841

In the course of recent wandering thoughts
overland, the field
was one upon which
the General had long looked. In the state as in everything
else to which he had set his attention, he had the way to reach
his great destination
by his better way.

Before the General, that a story of the battle
had been discovered to
the family of our

The first of these is the question of the
 general condition
 of the world economy.
 The second is the
 question of the
 general condition
 of the world economy.
 The third is the
 question of the
 general condition
 of the world economy.

capital and enterprise,
 without letting for
 humanity any more
 pains, trial, sorrow,
 griefs will illumine
 the paths for those of us who remain.

Alfred G. B...

...

Lord & Co.

...

[Redacted stamp]